

Monday, March 16—Joshua 15-17

How are God's Kingdom purposes being accomplished in these chapters (think covenant promises to Abraham—Gen.12:1-3)?

Tuesday, March 17—Joshua 18-20

Again, how are God's Kingdom purposes being accomplished in these chapters (think covenant promises to Abraham—Gen.12:1-3)?

Wednesday, March 18—Joshua 21-22

What instruction does Joshua give to the tribes whose inheritance was on the eastern side of the Jordan (see Josh.22:1-6)? How does this tie in to God's Kingdom purposes with the Israelites; what role does it play (see Exodus 19:5-6; Deut.28:1-2, 15)?

Thursday, March 19—Joshua 23-24

What truths in these chapters relate to God's kingdom purposes with His people and what is their relation?

Friday, March 20—Judges 1-3

What do these chapters reveal concerning what happened to Israel after they entered and conquered the Land? How did they fare with respect to the Law God had given them?

Saturday, March 21—Judges 4-6

What is revealed in this account concerning the sovereignty of God and His providential working in the affairs of mankind?

Sunday, March 22—Judges 7-8

What examples of the sovereignty of God are given in these chapters?