

Thru the Bible- May 25-31

2 Chronicles 26-Ezra 8

Monday, May 25- 2 Chronicles 26-28

In this section, as well as in the previous sections, what determines the manner in which God deals with the king and the nation, either to bless and support them, or to discipline and support their enemies? What do we learn about God from this?

Tuesday, May 26- 2 Chronicles 29-30

According to 2 Chron.30:9, for what reason will the captors of the people of Israel treat them with compassion? Whose compassion is ultimately being demonstrated in this kinder treatment?

Wednesday, May 27- 2 Chronicles 31-33

What was the ground of Hezekiah and Judah's confidence in the face of the Assyrian advance? What was the outcome of this confidence?

Thursday, May 28- 2 Chronicles 34, 35

For what reason was God gracious to Josiah to hear the prayer he prayed when he understood that Judah was guilty of violating the Law of Moses as had been found in the Temple?

Friday, May 29- 2 Chronicles 36, Ezra 1, 2

What do we learn concerning the working of the Lord in the affairs of men from 2 Chronicles 36? How do we see God's hand at work in the affairs of men in this chapter?

Saturday, May 30- Ezra 3-5

What did the people celebrate in their songs before the Lord? What was the subject of their worship?

Sunday, May 31- Ezra 6-8

How is the providential hand of God evident in the rebuilding of the Temple and Ezra's return to Jerusalem?