

Monday, June 8—Esther 4-7

Notice God's gracious provision and providential care of His people

Tuesday, June 9—Esther 8-10

How is the hand of God's providence evident in the events that unfold in these chapters?

Wednesday, June 10—Job 1-5

How is Job's fear of God demonstrated in his response to the adversity that beset Him?

Thursday, June 11—Job 6-10

Consider Job 9:5-13; what do these verses reveal concerning the power and authority of God; what do they indicate concerning the working of His providential hand in the affairs of Creation?

Friday, June 12—Job 11-15

What are the implications of Eliphaz's words for Job's claim to be righteous (15:14-16)? What do his words suggest concerning Job?

Saturday, June 13—Job 16-21

What is Job's confidence in the midst of his suffering and the accusations and unhelpful counsel of his friends (19:23-27)

Sunday, June 14—Job 22-28

What does Job say concerning wisdom (28:12-28)? Where does it reside? Where is it found? Of what does it consist?
